

Let's Get it Right for Children and Young People in Wales

Competition entry rules

The competition is open to all primary school pupils in Wales. The deadline for entries is Friday 15th January 2010. All entries should be submitted using the official form supplied to the school. Posted to:

Let's Get it Right, c/o Working Word PR, 9th Floor South Gate House, Wood Street, Cardiff CF10 1EW Or emailed to info@workingwordpr.com

All entries should be signed by the class teacher.

By entering into the competition, the school agrees to the terms and conditions stated herein.

- All entries are made on behalf of the school and it is the school's responsibility to ensure that all necessary consents have been obtained from the pupils and their parents or guardians.
- No responsibility can be accepted for entries lost or mislaid and entries cannot be returned.
- Families of employees of the Welsh Assembly Government or their agents are not allowed to enter the competition.
- A condition of entry is that schools must ensure that pupils agree and have the necessary permission to be photographed, filmed or recorded in association with the prize or presentation of the prize.
- The Welsh Assembly Government and any organisation associated with the prizes reserve the right to use such photos, films or recordings for promotional purposes.

In entering the competition you agree that you will not:

- Submit any material which is not the pupil's own work
- Submit falsehoods or misrepresentations that could damage or offend any third party
- Submit any material that is unlawful, offensive or otherwise inappropriate;

All material submitted or generated as part of the competition shall be licensed to the Welsh Assembly Government on a royalty free, non-exclusive, worldwide licence in perpetuity in accordance with these terms and conditions. The Welsh Assembly Government reserve the right to use the text, images and/or recordings in whole or in part in whatever way they think fit (which may be unrelated to this competition), including the web, without permission of the entrant or payment for such use.

The Welsh Assembly Government will only use personal details in so far as is necessary for the competition, subject always to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1988.

Judging of entries will be carried out by a panel appointed by the Welsh Assembly Government. Their decision will be final.

There is no cash alternative to non-cash prizes. The Welsh Assembly Government reserves the right to change prize details at any time.

The winners and runners up will be announced by Friday 26th February 2010. Details will be posted on the website www.uncrcletsgetitright.co.uk

We will contact the winning schools to arrange the presentation of prizes to the pupils concerned.

No correspondence can be entered into or interviews given on any matters arising from this competition.

The Welsh Assembly Government may publish the name of the school and/or the names of the individuals alongside any material when used.

Further information from info@workingwordpr.com

